Colleen Vance

DEC 24, 1925 - JAN 23, 2020

Colleen Vance, 94, a loving grandmother of three, passed away in her sleep Thursday January 23rd surrounded by her family.

Mrs. Vance and her late husband E.B. were active members of Worldwide Church of God in the late 50's through the 1970's and then the later iterations of that church, Church of God International and ICG.

Starting in the late 60's, Mrs. Vance pioneered the transitioning of small insurance businesses from manual filing to computer bookkeeping.

There will be a visitation at Rader Funeral Home in Longview on Sunday Jan 26th from 3pm-6pm. The graveside funeral will take place the following Saturday February 1st at Woodberry Forest Cemetery in Madill, Oklahoma at the family plot at 1:30pm.

Mrs. Vance is survived by her daughter Cheryl Kern of Rockwall, TX, her three grandchildren Vance, Brandon, and Heath Freeman as well as her seven great grandkids Caelan, Ella, Owen, Sarah Cate, Chloe, Alexandra, and Elliot.

Colleen and EB were present at a very difficult time in my life. As with many church-related relationships, we drifted apart. She was an amazing and capable lady. Strong in many things, way before the times. Rest in Peace!!!
