Faye is survived by 3 sons and their wives, Hal and Angie Whitis of Longview, Bill and Jan Whitis of Marshall, Ralph and Tamsie Whitis of Longview; and daughter, Becky Bryan of Fort Worth. She is also survived by 15 grandchildren and 23 great grandchildren. Also surviving are very special friends, Ralph and Lee Vetter, Pat Hulley, Joyce Carlisle, Jane Strong, Pat Powell, Kay Pickett, Keith and Donna Blanton and Wayne Moseley.

The family would like to thank Heart to Heart Hospice and Interim Healthcare for their ultimate care and concern extended to mother. A special thanks to the caregivers that gave mother 24/7 love and attention.

Services are under the direction of Rader Funeral Home of Longview. Mrs. Whitis will be available for viewing on Thursday, February 20, at the funeral home. Please join us in celebrating her life on Friday, February 21, 2020 at 2 PM for a graveside service at Lakeview Memorial Gardens in Longview.

Faye was my neighbor for the last 10+ years. She was my friend and I miss her and her beautiful smile. Always her Christian self shined through. She was kind and caring, even when she had problems and deep losses. I have deep admiration for Faye. I enjoyed our chats and she often was fun when she shared long ago stories about when she was young! Faye loved her family, her sugar, plenty of chocolate and a good visit! I agree with the other lady, Faye, had a special way of making you feel like you were just the person she wanted to see! Faye was a great asset to our neighborhood. My heart is torn in half - one part will miss my dear friend, the weekly phone calls, our visits and your loving support and encouragement. The other part is full of joy just knowing there is a wonderful reunion and celebration taking place in Heaven with those you have longed to see. Until that day...in my heart you will stay! Love always, Jana

Faye was such a great friend to Mom.....they used to talk daily and discuss the Texas Rangers, the Astros and a thousand other topics. She always had that special way of making you feel like you were just the person she wanted to see. Really loved this precious little lady so much. I will miss going by there to visit.
