Elizabeth and Family Our hearts are saddened to know that your sweet Noble has passed but we are content knowing that he is in his heavenly home that God always had prepared for him. We have loved you, Elizabeth, and Noble ever since my and Lynn's dear parents (Marshall and Virgie Johnson) were members of Ware Acres and now Camille Acres Baptist Church. We have so many fond memories of our time spent with you, your Church family and your Pastors while attending your Services and all those wonderful, fun, and delicious covered-dish lunches and suppers. Noble always greeted us with a smile and a handshake or a hug—someone special that we always expected and were happy to see when we entered the Church. You and your family will be in our prayers tomorrow and in the coming days. We love you so much. Merritt & Diane Johnson Ryan Johnson

Noble was the epitome of a faithful Christian gentleman. It has been a joy to worship and work with him and Elizabeth through the Liberty Baptist Association for many years. Truly, he heard the words from our Lord: "Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your Lord," (Matthew 25:21) when he went to glory. Our prayers and thoughts and the prayers of our church family at Rosewood are with Elizabeth and her family. May our Lord fill your vacancy with His tender love and mercy. Respectfully, Charles & Charlotte Johnson Rosewood Baptist Church-Gilmer
