Charles Wayne McCellon

JAN 10, 1937 - OCT 3, 2020

Charles McCellon was born January 10, 1937 to Leona and James McCellon in Diana, Texas. He was married to the love of his life, June McCellon on February 16, 1962. Charles was a member of the Spring Hill First Baptist Church in Longview and enjoyed the friendship of his church family. He passed away October 3, 2020 after a hard fought battle with cancer.

Charles worked at Texas Eastman for 30 years as an operations shift supervisor. After retiring in 1995, he would frequently share stories from his time at work. He was a family man, through and through, having a special affection for his grandchildren. He attended almost every event of his grandchildren's, ranging from sporting events to plays. And now, while he didn't love to dance, there's no questioning that he is certainly enjoying a twirl with his wife June, up in paradise.

He is preceded in death by his wife, June McCellon, his parents, Leona and James McCellon, his aunts, uncles, and brothers and sisters.

He is survived by his step-son, Rick McDonald, daughters Pam McCellon, Lesia Matulis, and Teresa Attaway; his grandchildren, Todd McDonald, Chad McDonald, Samantha Jennings, Courtney McCasland, Kristy McNeil, Jammie Porter, Amanda Russell, and Rose LaBay; and his great-grandchildren, Kayle McNeil, Easton Russell, Ethan McDonald, and Elizabeth Jennings, as well as many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

The family would like to thank their church family and friends who kept them uplifted with their prayers and the staff of Heartsway Hospice who tended to him in his final days with us. Graveside service will begin at 10 A.M., Wednesday, October 7, 2020, with Brother Wayne Spanhanks officiating at Memory park Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers the family asks for donations to be made to Heartsway Hospice.

Keith & Donna Blanton lit a candle in honor of Charles.

Our sincere prayers go out to Ricky & family as we will miss Charlie around the community. Charlie Mac was my direct supervisor for a few years in the cracking plants & he left a lasting impression as a thorough, detailed operations manager, making sure his crew dotted all i's & crossed their t's at the end of his shift. We had some fond memories to cherish. May Jesus comfort you & yours. In His precious name, 🙏

I started to work at Eastman in the cracking plants with Charlie Mc. He was always a kind nice man. I know now he is home with his bride. Rest in peace.
