May God surround each of you with comfort, peace and love. I have so many special memories of summer visits with Hilda, running up and down the oil roads, playing games, eating Aunt Ellie's coconut cake (and other yummys)....always such fun and when they came to visit us and our trips to Galveston. Then after Hilda and Jack married and Ray and I married we were fast friends and spent so many fun times together. I miss them both. May they RIP. Love to family, Donella

Comfort to family. But joy that Hilda is released from her earthly body and able to enjoy her heavenly family awaiting her. No tears in heaven, but my the joy must be overflowing there for them to all be together. Jack and Cotton are smiling while Ellie and Hilda hug and chatter. My first memory of them is a visit while JD and I were dating and Jack and Hilda first moved to Houston and lived on a garage apartment. So many sweet memories since then. Love and prayers for you.

Memories only last if you share them
