I just today learned of Mr Beaton's passing from earth to the heavenly domain. He was a patient of mine. My only interactions with him were in the eye clinic and once at a local Longview grocery store. I was always glad to see him because he was just such a joyous, positive person. My deepest condolences go out to to his family and friends. I am sure he will be sorely missed here and yet be a fantastic addition to heaven.JTM

Uncle Jack was one of the most genuine, sweetest people you would ever meet. He loved his family so much, and he was always concerned about his older brother, my father. The last time we spoke was in October when he called me to tell me how worried he was because my dad was not picking up the phone. I told him that my dad was in the hospital but that he was going to be ok. He promised me to keep him updated, which I did. We had various phone conversations during that time in which we reminisced about life in general, and he reminded me to vote, reminding me that we live in a great country that provides us with freedom, which is priceless. He raised 3 wonderful children, who I am proud to call my cousins. Rest in peace Uncle Jack, I know that you are rejoicing with the angels. We love you!

Dear family, we're really sorry. Uncle Quino (Jack) was a great oriental cuban american and very religious person. Siempre nos encantó su entonación santiaguera del inglés. Muchas personas en las calles de La Habana quedarán esperando los regalos que prometía en sus paseos, era incapaz de decir que no a nadie. Me da pesar haber hablado con él pocos días antes de su ingreso y sentirlo fuerte y decidido a recuperarse. Dios lo cuide. Nino Beatón y familia.

Lo sentimos mucho, fue un gran Tio, recuerdo mucho sus cuentos y anécdotas, así como predicando la palabra de Dios. A pesar de los años parecía que nunca se había ido de Santiago de Cuba. Siempre pensando en como unir a la familia, sin dejar a nadie atrás. Un beso grande. Que Dios lo tenga en la Gloria. José Juan

Jackie was so amazing, fun loving and very caring! His heart was always open to those around him and we all just loved his big laugh. He had a smile that would light up a room. I remember when my Mom passed away 8 years ago, Jackie was such a support to our entire family. He seemed to make a very difficult situation just a little bit easier for everyone. Sending much love, hugs and prayers to my cousins Mark, Christina, Alicia, Victoria and all their family and friends at this very difficult time. We are always here for you. Love you all very much, Willie & Vicky Schwenger
