This was beautiful. I have laughed at memories this week and she'd more tears than I thought I could and this video helped bring them all together. Teresa my dear cuz I'm going to miss you so much I know you didn't get to Houston much the last few years but when you did we always did see each other and that was special. I love you and hope you Rest In Peace until we meet again.

Teresa will be truly missed and always have a special place in our hearts forever. You were family and always will be. You were the sister I never had. Kaitlynn and Damon definitely gained another guarding angel to watch over them. Keeping all in our hearts, thoughts, and prayers. Til we all meet again. God Bless.

Teresa and I were best friends in high school and I'll always remember her for being funny, strong willed and a very good listener. So many times, we would spend nights at each other's house and stay up talking about boys we liked and how we wished we were brave enough to ask them out. I remember our trip to Houston on a school trip, our trip to Austin to get our nails done, and I remember her birthday when she got her first car. That Honda Civic used to roll down FireTower Rd blasting Ace of Bass, windows down and two crazy girls singing at the top of our lungs. Teresa and I grew apart after highschool as a lot of people do, but a few years ago, we reconnected and she came to visit me. I got to meet her daughter and she met my boys. We laughed, we reminisced, we cried...but most of all, it was like we never missed a beat. Teresa was dedicated to making her life better at that time and had just about finished getting her nursing license. I was so proud of her and I could tell she would be good at it. My heart is with Glen and Brenda and Kaitlyn. Know that she loves you and will be with you in heart and mind forever. Goodbye my friend for now. I'll remember you forever..."Harley Davidson and Marlboro Man".
