I meet Joe and his wife at the store where I work in White Oak. I knew Mr Vigliotta had a lot of health problems and we would always talk about them. He was a great person. I'm so sorry to hear of him passing. My prayers are with his family.

I am so shocked and saddened to hear of your passing Joe. So many memories of you from way back when I was just a little girl and my big cousin Joe was home on leave and visiting with the family at one of the many Vigliotta gatherings and from your beautiful wedding with Charolette that I had the privilege to attend. I pray you are at peace. Your Cousin, April ❤️🙏

Dear Charolotte and family ,I was deeply saddened by the loss of my cousin Joe and send you all my sincere condolences. We had so many fun times as young children at my Uncle Tony's house , Joe was always adventuresome and with a strong personality. I know that he had recently had a spiritual awakening , and I hope that it has provided you all some measure of comfort. We are all thinking of you in your time of loss and grief. Joe's cousin , Ron Gambale
