Dear Brother Ed: How our hearts are saddened to learn of Sister Beulah's passing; however, she is now celebrating with Jesus. The picture you used is one I remember well; however, I remember all the way back to Sister Beulah Speers year. Sister Beulah was always the perfect model and example for many of us. She was gifted, but added that loving smile to everyone. We share in your great loss. I will be playing for Sister Rennie Ofon's memorial, so we will be driving to San Antonio, but will be saying a prayer for you and your sweet family. We love you Brother Ed. John and Rosie Berry

Steve and family-your mom was an especially kind lady to me through the years since we were in high school. I have never forgotten riding with your parents in the antique car to eat Saturday dinner at Catfish King. I ran into your parents a few summers ago. There ongoing love for one another was still evident. What a lady. What a mom. You were blessed to have her for so many years. What a wonderful life!
