Betty Hudman

DEC 9, 1934 - OCT 24, 2021

Betty Sue Haney Hudman passed from this life and into the arms of her Savior on October 24, 2021 in Longview, Texas. She was born to Cleve and Winnie Haney in Carthage, Texas on December 9, 1934. She was a member of Woodland Hills Baptist Church.

Betty accepted Jesus as her Savior at the age of 21 and was guided by her love and faithfulness toward the Lord and loved attending church. Betty became chronically ill at the age of 25 and she asked the Lord to let her live to see her four daughter's graduate high school. She went on to witness them marry and have children of their own. Every morning with her hand on her bible, she prayed for her family and others. Betty's desire was that everyone know Jesus as their Savior. "Nanny" loved each of her family beyond measure and they gave her the greatest joy. She was famous for her homemade biscuits or "turtles" as the grandchildren called them. And she loved having her large family for holidays and would always send them home with goody bags of food.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents; her devoted husband and love of her life for 54 years, Billy Joe Hudman; daughter, Sandra Hudman; son-in-law, Tommy Hughes; brother, Carol Jack Haney; sister, Dovey Jo McDaniel; grandson, Robert Hodges Jr.; grandson, James Jason Mackey; and great-granddaughter, Alyssia Jolie Poss.

Betty is survived by her daughters, Melinda Whitehurst and husband, Larry of Longview; Jane Hughes of Longview and Cynthia Adams and husband, Matthew of Longview; brother, Glenn Haney and wife, Margaret of Longview; son-in-law, Robert Hodges of Houston; grandchildren, Shane Whitehurst of Longview, Brandon Whitehurst and wife, Anna, of South Lake Tahoe, California, Jeremy Whitehurst and wife, Erin, of Hallsville; Joey Rogers and wife, Becca of Longview, Damon Rogers and wife, Tracy of Hickory Tavern, South Carolina, Misty Cunningham of Longview,

Aunt Sue was the sweetest, kindest, most generous person who ever lived. She was loved by so many.. This world has lost one of its most precious gifts. Heaven has gained another Glorious Angels. I can only imagine the Heavenly reunion with all the family who had gone ahead. Save us a seat. Linda .

Awe, sweet Linda. What a sweet tribute to my precious mother. She loved and thought so much about you. She is happy and free from this old world of sorrow. She is having a good ol' time reuniting we her loved ones that passed before her. Yes, she will be saving you a "special" seat. Take care. God bless you. I love you dearly.
