We met 28 yrs ago at Long John Silver's, no matter the distance life put between us when we linked up it was like nothing ever happened. She was apart of my kid's life's from toddlers to adults. Donna was always ready for a road trip or vacation at a drop of a dime. Very sweet and important person to me, she will be dearly missed and forever loved. ♡ ♡

Growing up, Donna and I played soccer together. Donna had this presence that led my dad, who coached us, to put her in as keeper. She had no experience at this position but it didn't show - she could stop pretty much anything from making it into the goal! Donna and I were also Girl Scouts together and our moms helped lead the troops. Donna had a kind and loving soul and I know she will be missed. Carla Storey
