I will always remember the time she shared her piano talents with me. We have sang together here on Earth and I can not wait to sing with her once again in the presence of our Lord. Until then, we will miss her lifting praise to Jesus in our church.

Pat was a good and faithful friend. She loved our Lord! She was a prayer warrior. God gave her a beautiful voice and she always shared to glorify and bring praise to anyone who needed her. Our choir, church and I will truly miss her. But God called her to her heavenly home. As I write she is singing in God's heavenly choir. I will miss her! Brenda Nix

Pat will be remembered as a woman of faith and for her beautiful singing voice. My fondest memory of her was our first practice session on a song she was to sing at church. I quickly learned she was meticulous in getting it right and had no problem telling me when she felt it wasn't right. Pat was a challenge to work with but well worth the effort and helped make me a better accompanist. What a blessing! She is now singing her praises face to face to her Lord and Savior!

I just loved to hear Pat sing. She was a blessing to our church and our music. I will miss her. I am so sorry I could not attend her service -- covid was a problem for me. God Bless you Pat.
