Carroll Mack Shipp, 82, of Longview, Texas passed away on January 22, 2022 at home, after a long battle with cancer. A memorial service will be held at 2 PM Thursday, January 27th at First United Methodist Church, Longview with Rev. Jay Jackson officiating. The family will receive friends from 1 to 2 pm prior to the service. The service will also be webcast at www.longviewfumc.org for those unable to attend.

He was born in Mexia, Texas to Les and Myrtle Shipp on August 26th, 1939 and moved to Longview at the age of 7 where he lived until his death. He met his soul mate, Sandra Long in the 3rd grade while both were attending Campus Ward. They started dating in their sophomore year at Longview High School and married in 1958, the year after their graduation and were happily married for 62 years.

Upon his graduation from high school, he attended Kilgore Jr. College and Louisiana Tech. He went to work for Texas Eastman in 1961 in the Data Processing department and retired in 1999. Carroll was an active member of First United Methodist Church, Longview where he was in the Waddell Sunday School Class. He also served as an usher and volunteered in several other areas within the church.

Carroll had several hobbies over his lifetime, but his real love was golf. His love and participation in golf brought him many good friends over the years. His real joy from golf came from teaching his kids and grandkids the game.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Sandra, and his parents Les and Myrtle Shipp and one brother, Billy Paul Shipp.

Those left to cherish his memory are his son, Howard and wife Vickie, daughter Sheila Rogers and husband Danny, his grandchildren Kyle Shipp and wife Carrie, Stephanie Collins and husband Chris, Lara Zahn and husband Dustin, Patrick Simmons and wife Hannah, Branson

I worked side by side with Carroll for over twenty years. Carroll was the most pleasant person to be around and to work with. Carroll and Sandra were such loving and caring people. My wife(Janelle) remembers when she was in labor with our first child and woke up from being sedated the first person she saw was Sandra standing by her bedside holding her hand. We lived in the same neighborhood with Carroll and Sandra in the early 70s and one night when I was working a storm came through and Carroll called Janelle at home to make sure she was ok. I just wanted to share a couple of examples of how Carroll and Sandra showed their love and concern for everyone. Carroll will be missed but the wonderful memories of him will live on. Rest in peace my co-worker and friend.Jimmy/Janelle Carver

Carroll was one of my golfing buddies for many years in Longview. He was the consummate gentleman and friend. We had so many golf stories and memories as well as reconnecting on Facebook a year or so ago and catching up. Howard my prayers are you and your families. Your dad was one my best friends in Longview.

Had the privilege and blessing to call Carroll a dear co-worker at Eastman Chemical and I am deeply saddened at his passing. Carroll was such a gentle, mild-mannered, caring man, always enjoyed visiting and sharing a smile. His presence was always like a gentle east wind that brought calm in the midst of any work crisis. He was fiercely loyal to his team and would do anything for you. To Carroll's children and grandchildren, your dad / grand-dad was a true man in every sense of the word and his life blessed and enhanced many friends and co-workers. I know you are proud of the life and legacy he lived and left. May the Lord richly comfort you as you celebrate his home-coming, and move forward in his memory. The Lord bless each of you.

When my mother moved to Longview to live with us in 2015, the first people she met were Carroll & Sandra. We sat behind them in church every Sunday, and they made mom feel so welcome in her "new home." She insisted we get to church a little early each week so she could get her hug from Carroll. He gave the best hugs! In 2018, Sandra came to the hospital to sit with my mother so I could keep an appointment, and she was there when mom passed peacefully. Carroll & Sandra were dear friends. I am thankful that he is now enjoying his reunion with her. Rest In Peace!Carla Szafran
