Pop always treated me fairly. If anytime I needed to borrow something he had or if I needed advice for something he could help with he always was happy to help me out. He loved horses and knew how to handle them well, I learned a lot of good things from him. He was a real cowboy and will be missed.

Cousin Wayne was one that I respected and admired, he was bigger than life in my eyes. I always enjoyed visiting , only wished I had been able to spend more time with him. I feel very fortunate to have shared part of my younger years in his presence. Rest in piece cousin, hope to see you in the big house.
