In the brief time that I spent with Duane, he was a very caring and kind man, very welcoming. He will definitely be missed by all.

For my nephews.....find strength in knowing that Duane is around you and loved you. Be a beacon of light reflecting that love and know that you are loved.

Duane will forever be missed by so many people. I will miss him terribly. He was always smiling and laughing and would never let you know if he was hurting. He was a giver and an angel with a temper at times but when you are hiding physical pain it is hard to keep from flaring up. He loved everyone and his heart was made of gold. He worked hard all of his life and shared what he made with those closed to him. He was my protector growing up. He was a genius when it came to anything mechanical and wise. My biggest regret will always be these last few years we didn't get to spend more time together. I love you my sweet brother.

This is one of the greatest men that I will forever be proud to call my uncle. He always treated all of us (his nieces and nephews) as we were his own children and I loved him dearly.

I love you brother. I always will but I know you are out of pain now finally and I know you are with the Lord. and I know I will see you again....in the morning. Love always, from Sis Jerry.

Sweet wonderful memories of us growing up back in Houston where I had sleep overs with my cousins. Duane and his brother and sisters were My brothers and sisters. I was an only child and never wanted to leave my Aunt Bettys place. Loved My mom and dad but Duane and all of them were so dear to me. Later when I got married my husband and all Duane family as well as he himself made such a welcome atmosphere to my Bobby ...well words can't express how glad my heart was that we all got along so well and enjoyed each other's company. I just so loved sitting back and watching Duane Bobby and Curtis talking as if they had known each other forever. A lot said to just say this. Duane was and is a special person. Won't see many like him futurewise. He and his whole family will always carry a special place in my ♥. Duane I'm sure is having a wonderful picnic with our earlier family gone before. As Jerry said , I also say... in the morning cuz... we love you and already miss you so much
