We went to Colorado on vacation as kids and went snipe hunting. Came home with a chipmunk that ate his way from the trunk to the cab of the car. Pa Miller and Daddy took the dashboard apart and finally he got loose and ran across the road. That trip was fun. Enjoyed the family get togethers and firework feuds . Rest In Peace James.

James will be truly missed. He was my neighbor and friend for many years. He is one of the reasons my son became a police officer. Maxwell as we all called him was truly my sons idol when he would pull up in his uniform he was larger than life. He helped me with my dads stuff when my dad had a stroke. He was truly a big hearted person and never judged anyone. Always had a smile. Prayers for you all. RIP Maxwell
