Douglas Stockton lit a candle in honor of Morris.

Never really knew Morris Polk, his grandson. Taylor was a distinguished gymnast on our gymnastics team and he always was talking about his granddad. I can tell he was a good man.

My thoughts and prayers are with you Wanda and all of the family. I haven't seen you in a long time but both of you were always very special to me. Our friend, Kay Martin gave me the news yesterday. I know you will cherish the memories forever and know that he is now your guardian angel who will always be walking beside you to give you strength.

Wanda and family, forty plus years as neighbors and friends. Homer and Morris could block traffic at the corner of Brent and Thompson and Bobby would join them as they shared life together as busy productive great guys. Hugs to all as we celebrate another good man's life who leaves behind great memories. Share your stories over and over that keeps our hearts healthy. BJ Covington and family.
