It was my pleasure to work with you in a very stressful time, too many positions to fill and not enough people, but we usually got the job done and you made it fun! Rest now, and know that you did a fine job and I will miss you and your friendship! Glenna Jackson

I grew up in the south side of Longview for a while on Dixon St. and remember when David and his family moved in nearby. I remember when David got his first motorcycle. He always added so much fun to the neighborhood. In my memory growing up there it was an idyllic time. Sorry to hear of his passing.
