After joining the Navy in 1957 to help his mother financially, he returned and attended Tyler Jr College. He met his wife Mary Lou while there, graduating in 1964. He was most proud of his children, Lisa who was a Special Education teacher in Alief, Tx for 29 years before retiring in 2018 and Rick, who works as a Principal Solutions Architect for Siemens in McKinney, Tx. Alfred was always an avid fan of the Cowboys and Aggies, enjoyed playing cards and 42 with his church friends, as well doing his daily crossword puzzles and reading detective or historical novels.
