I first met Gracie as her Bible Study Fellowship group leader. We became fast friends. We had lunch almost every week. We ate at Pizza Hut so often that when I would get in my car on Wednesdays it would tell me how many minutes to Pizza Hut. We had so many laughs over lunch and visits in one another's homes. We also shared our greatest concerns and fears with one another as well. She was a confidant as well. We also shared times together as couples. My husband knew Bob also from BSF and through my friendship with Gracie. Gracie loved people especially children-had such a soft spot for them. She also loved to have fun; and her joy was contagious. I am missing my dear friend but so glad to know that she is in a much better place. Cheryl
