I worked at Continental Can Co with Joe after he transferred into our plant after his home plant. Our plant closed in 1992 after it closed Joe did several things, but he remained in this area mostly. He had a good sense of humor and he put up with lots of the guys calling him Yankee Joe and he gave as much as he received. He will be missed. Vance Slough

Yep..one thing about my dad...he really loved living in East Texas. My mom tried for years to talk him into moving back to the Chicago area and he was livid, he was not going to leave East Texas! He was determined to live out his life down here, and to everyones surprise, that is exactly what he did. I'm gonna miss him so much.

Met Joey from what I can remember about 77 years ago when we were childhood neighbors. We played thru the fence together since we were too young to leave the yard! Kept in touch all these years. He will be very missed!!!

He certainly believed in lifetime friends. 77 years ago! My dad definitely kept in touch with his close inner circle. Not much of that type of thing anymore in this world. He was definitely old school in some of his ways... definitely going to be missed...
