Dan was a student at Kilgore College in our Oil & Gas program. He was a very generous and successful businessman. As director of technology programs I observed his progress there, and I observed his progress from my business contacts with him. He will be missed by his family and many friends.

Dear Pat, Words cannot fully express the profound grief I felt upon hearing of Dan's passing. He was an honorable, kind, and considerate person who treated everyone who deserved it with immense respect and a calm, steady presence. Those who worked with or for him quickly recognized his brilliant knowledge of the Oil and Gas Industry, a testament to his remarkable expertise and professionalism. On the golf course, Dan was a joy to play with, whether in casual rounds or competitive tournaments, his skill and respectful sportsmanship shining through. His family can take solace in knowing he was deeply loved, respected, and cherished as both a friend and a professional. His legacy of kindness, brilliance, and calm dignity will live on in our hearts. With heartfelt condolences, Dennis Mosley

I first met Dan in Tyler Texas at the AMOCO office where I was sent to work as a Petroleum Engineer. Dan helped me get settled in and go right to work. One weekend the guys at the office planned a flag football game. As it turned out, Dan turned out to be a "strong" blocker! Wow, he really left an impression on me! 😊. Later on, Dan cosulted for me. He was a real friend and I truly miss him. I am praying for Dan's family and friends during this trying time.
