Worked with Bob many years at Eastman and again with Westlake. As Clay said, he had grit, always had lots of stories. He loved his family. Our prayers are with you family during this difficult time.

I worked with Bob for many years. We have many conversations about life's ups and downs. Bob liked to talk about his family, he would say he was very blessed when it came to them. He was very proud of his grandsons. Bob was very unique in his way of expressing his thoughts. You always knew where he stood on matters. After his retirement we kept in touch. I know he struggled with physical ailments as we all can. But he had Grit. I will miss his calls on Sunday to discuss the Chiefs or those sorry Cowboys. God knows I will miss you, my friend. My prayers to your family, Clay Baxley
