She was born on July 31, 1938 in Henderson, Texas to Faye Louise Baughman and Horace Edward Dunn. She was raised in the Millville Community by her loving mother and her step father O.B. Clamp.

As the oldest and great big sister, she was always looking out for her younger sister and baby brother.

They had a whirlwind romance even Eddie surprised her with a boat with her name on it. They were elated to have their first born Gary Gene Wilkerson, followed by their son Eddie Dean Wilkerson, their late infant son Bradley Eric Wilkerson, and daughter Jennifer Dee Wilkerson.

She completed her degree at Kilgore College. Working in accounting, she worked with Pritchard and Abbott right after college.

In 1960, she helped Eddie start his business Eddie's Paint and Body Shop, and worked together for a number of years.

Always up for adventure and fun as a family, they had a great time with horses, trail rides and such. Dolores was a great barrel racer on her beloved paint horse named Tar Baby D, even

So very sorry to hear about the loss of your precious Mother. Delores was one of a kind! Ironically, this past Thanksgiving my daughter Laurie asked me if I could remember the recipe for "Dolores Wilkerson's" homemade pie that she shared with us several times. I went to my box of recipes' and found it right away. I decided to make it and take it with me to Rockwall where the family had Thanksgiving. The pie was a huge hit and we all told stories about memories we have of Delores. Some things you never forget and some people are always remembered for their kindness. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Linda Crim
