Her faith was the cornerstone of her life. Sundays were non-negotiable, and if the church doors were open, the family was there. Through Mom's intentional faithfulness, generations were given the opportunity to know Jesus—one of her greatest legacies.

Mom was a woman of quiet determination and leadership, becoming the first woman to serve on the White Oak School Board. She was also a devoted member of East Mountain Baptist Church, where she led the Women's Ministry for many years, serving with humility, compassion, and purpose.

Fishing was one of her great joys. If the crappie were biting, Mom and Dad were at the lake. As the grandchildren grew, they were loaded into the boat to share in the fun. Mom cleaned fish right alongside Dad and fried enough for anyone who happened by, always making extra to share with neighbors. Hospitality came naturally to her.

For the past eleven years while living at Buckner, Mom continued to do what she had always done—love people well. She spent countless hours on the porch with friends, joyfully wearing the titles "Queen of the Porch" and "Coffee Queen." She greeted everyone who came through the doors and could almost always be found with a cup of coffee in her hand throughout the day. Her warmth, welcome, and genuine joy made Buckner feel like home to so many.

And then there were the rolls. Mom's homemade rolls were legendary—an essential part of every Thanksgiving and Christmas gathering. As the family grew, the batches grew too, yet there were always enough. Just like her love.

Gratitude

The family extends heartfelt thanks to the Memory Care staff at Buckner and Heart to Heart Hospice, whose compassion and dignity brought great comfort and peace. Because of you, her family rested knowing Mom was lovingly and faithfully cared for.

Services

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, January 31, 2026, in East Mountain Baptist Church at 11:00 AM in a visitation beginning at 10:00 AM. A private burial will be held at a later date.

Allie Marie Pendleton lived a life worthy of celebration—a life that pointed others to faith, family, and faithful service.

A cherished memory with my Aunt Ree was sharing recipes. Our favorite season was fall so we exchanged many yummy pumpkin recipes. Any time I visited her, she always had a new recipe for me to try. And I don't think I was ever at her house when she didn't have a wonderful cake or pie for me to sample while we sipped coffee & chatted. She always had a smile on her face & the sweetest hug to send me home with. I still have all the recipes that she gave or sent to me along with special little notes that were sent with them. My life has been so blessed by her presence.

Auntie Ree & I shared many, many memories over the years. She was like a second mother to me. She was always so easy to talk to no matter what was going on in my life & always offered Godly wisdom & advice without ever judging. She taught by Godly example & a visit with her was always a special one. I can only imagine the joy she is feeling right now & what she is experiencing as she reunites with loved ones in Heaven. "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away." Revelations 21:4
