“ Dr. Rogers was my preaching instructor at Luther Rice Seminary in Jacksonville, FL. I will never forget his down-home southern flavor of teaching the wonder of our Lord's Gospel message. He had a way of talking about the power of The Lord's Gospel that helped to shape my ministry. One my favorite phrases he would use whenever we would preach a good sermon in class, "Well, my brother or sister, that will be your sugar stick." I still use that today when I train preachers of the Gospel. Rest in peace in our Lord and Savior.

“ I was a young girl when Bro. Ben became our pastor in Hazelwood, Missouri. I grew to know God more deeply under his preaching and committed my heart and life to Christian ministry because of his discipleship and the love of his family. Today, as a hospice chaplain, I am still forever grateful to Ben, Nita and family for opening their hearts and home for so many years to our youth group. I was forever changed. Love to Nita, Ruth, Benjie, Becky and Anna--looking forward to joining Bro. Ben in heaven one day!

“ I will be forever grateful to Brother Ben. He came to our church in Hazelwood, Missouri more than 50 years ago ... and he began to preach! Brother Ben had a way of presenting the Gospel so clearly, and I came to truly know the Lord through his preaching. I know my precious husband was there to meet him yesterday!

“ I'm so thankful for Brother Ben's ministry. He came to Hazelwood Baptist in Missouri when I was a little girl. I came to know Jesus under his teaching. He was so much fun for the youth, he made us laugh all the time. My life was so blessed to have had him in it. I know my mom and my brother met him at the gate.

Love and thanks forever. Hugs to the whole Rogers family
