

Clark Allen Wagner

February 19, 1959 - November 30, 2020

Clark Allen Wagner, known by most as Allen, departed his earthly home on Monday, November 30th at the age of 61.

Allen was born in Fort Worth, Texas in 1959 and grew up in Amarillo, Texas where his family ran a jewelry business. He learned the trade by working along-side his father at Wagner's Jewelers and later at their store, Rings Inc. in Denver, Colorado.

Allen later attended Longview High School before receiving his associate's degree in jewelry repair from Kilgore College. He went on to become a master jeweler and created beautiful one-of-a-kind pieces.

Allen loved art, history, and all things quirky and creative, which is how many would describe him. With a deep belly laugh and a voice that carried, Allen's presence in any room brought with it warmth, joy, and laughter. He had the gifts of storytelling and of making those he met feel at home. Among the many things he passed along to his children were the love of nature, an appreciation for history, the excitement of a good road trip, and a witty sense of humor. He enters now into his greatest adventure of all—that of eternal life—and he will be missed deeply.

Allen is preceded in death by his parents, Clark and Ruth Wagner, and son Regan Wagner. He is remembered with love by his children Tiffany Cintron and Ryan Wagner, daughter-in-law Sidney Wagner, grandbabies Victory and Viva Cintron, and the mother of his children and best friend, Hope Wagner Fountain.

If you knew Allen, you've likely had some great laughs and even better times. The family would love for you to share your memories and celebrate Allen's life. A service will be held from 5 to 7 pm on Friday, December 4th at 405 Glenhaven Drive in Longview, Texas 75601.

“ My mother worked with Allen at Murray jewelry, I remember every time I would go to murray jewelry Allen would always have something random for me to have and we would always have random facts to share back and forth. He would come out of his little office and laugh as he showed us something so absurd that we couldn't help but laugh with him. Allen was a great person with a great spirit, he always got in his car and sped off after work to give me and my mother a show.. he was an amazing person and I send my condolences to the family. Thank you for all of the great memories. You are most definitely missed. Carson, {Michele's daughter}

“ Allen was family, we worked together for many years and became good friends. Tiffany was a little girl and the twins were tiny when I first met Allen and soon after my dear friend Hope. Allen was an artist- his work was rivaled by all other jewelers. Beyond any worldly accomplishments; Allen was first a dad and family man. He loved his children and grandchildren so, he cherished his lifelong partnership with Hope. While, I've not seen Allen in years, he will always be in my heart and I'll miss his pics and Facebook comments. We will celebrate his heavenly reunion with precious Regan. Love you Allen

“ Allen was always the best and funniest at the table during holidays. Often, I sat next to or across from him and just couldn't help but crack up because he always had the best stories and jokes to tell. He was the kind of person who said and did what he wanted and didn't care what others thought. A free spirit, and a joy. You will be missed. Praying for You Tiffany, Ryan , Hope and the girls.
