“ I have no words really to say how much I loved and will miss Mama Irene. She loved me like I was one of her own kids, and the feelings were mutual. Since I moved to Missouri I come home yearly to visit. My first and last visit was always Mama Irene and Graci. She made sure to always send me home with something homemade for my kitchen, hand towels, pot holders and etc. My visits will continue but there will be a big part missing now. No more sitting on the porch and having our little chats...
R.I.P Mama, I love you and will miss you forever.
